DIED QUITE SUDDENLY.

Franklin C. Davis of Brattleboro Was 81 Years Old.

Brattleboro, Feb. 15.—Franklin C. Davis, aged 81, died suddenly yesterday afternoon in the home of his son, Charles H. Davis, at 21 Estey street, after a short illness.

He was born in Newfane, January 4, 1829, and was the son of Calvin and Betsey (Morrell) Davis. He lived with his parents after finishing school and later established himself in the shoe business, where he remained until 1861, when he went to West Townsend, where he stayed for eight years, coming to Brattleboro in 1869 to take charge of the belts in the machinery department of the Estey organ company.

After 17 years with the Estey company he retired. He was married to Lydia A. Davis of Newfane, October 3, 1848, and she survives with one son, Charles H. Davis of Brattleboro. He was a member of the Center Congregational church. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at the home at 2 o'clock, Rev. Roy M. Houghton officiating. Burial will take place in Prospect Hill cemetery.

ON DOCTOR'S ORDERS.

We Drank Beer Instead of Water. Arrested for Keeping.

Brattleboro, Feb. 15.—C. P. Shumway, proprietor of the Kendrick House in Putney, was before Judge E. W. Gibson in the Putney court yesterday charged with keeping intoxicating liquor illegally. A raid was made on his premises Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Myron P. Davis of Brattleboro, assisted by Deputy Sheriffs W. G. Norton and Adin F. Miller. They seized 60 bottles of ale. The complaint was made by Town Grand Juror George T. Apkin.

Mr. Shumway pleaded guilty but presented a petition signed by 90 people asking for leniency, and stating that he had been selling with their knowledge and permission. Mr. Shumway also stated that the liquor was for his own consumption, and for use in the culinary department of his hotel, and he said that he never drank water, nothing but beer. Dr. E. S. Foster said that he had ordered Mr. Shumway not to drink water. The rum, whiskey and ale were confiscated, but the beer was returned to Mr. Shumway and the case continued one week for sentence.
